EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION PRAYER INTENTIONS

Dear Saint Veronica Parishioners,

One of the many blessings of Eucharistic Adoration is that Jesus actually listens to and answers our prayers... since we are just a few feet apart from His Presence.

Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament are the "prayer warriors" of the Church in general and our parish community in particular. Part of our Daily Adoration prayers are for your special intentions those of your loved ones. You are always welcome to pray for your needs or those of someone else. Simply drop the attached form in the PRAYER INTENTION BOX inside our Adoration Chapel.

Your intentions need not be general, but personal, so that we can pray specifically to Jesus for you. We are united, both in sorrow and joy, grief and happiness, anxiety and peace; defeat and victory, death and life.

In Jesus' name,

Ando Perlas
Eucharistic Adoration Coordinator

The Ministry of Hospitality Workshop

The Saint Veronica Hospitality Group and Knights of Columbus Council # 9604 are cordially inviting everyone who are interested in learning and understanding more about the ministry of hospitality to attend a two hour workshop on August 25, Saturday @6:30 p.m. at the Church.

Many think that "hospitality" is fellowship with coffee and donuts every Sunday, but it is more than this. It also goes beyond the usual norm of greeting, casual conversation or socializing for a few moments after Mass. True hospitality that is Christian hospitality involves ALL OF YOU toward creating an atmosphere of welcoming, belongingness, participation and community building that is deeply rooted in the Eucharist, the center of our faith.

Our workshop speaker is Mr. Patrick Vallez-Kelly, Director for the Office of Worship, Archdiocese of San Francisco.
