Silence in Church

It has become more noticeable that when people come for Mass (especially on weekends), there is a lot of loud talking inside the church before Mass begins, and even during Mass itself.

Many people arrive early to pray silently before Mass, and when others are conversing, it is very difficult for them to do so.

The Church is a sacred place of worship: God's House, and we should not disrupt people who are visiting with Him.

Let us keep our talking for outside of Church after Mass. On Sundays, we can join our fellow parishioners for Hospitality in the Parish Center after morning Masses, which is a wonderful place to get together and talk.

Thank you!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION PRAYER INTENTIONS

Dear Saint Veronica Parishioners,

One of the many blessings of Eucharistic Adoration is that Jesus actually listens to and answers our prayers... since we are just a few feet apart from His Presence.

Adorers of the Blessed Sacrament are the “prayer warriors” of the Church in general and our parish community in particular.
Part of our Daily Adoration prayers are for your special intentions those of your loved ones. You are always welcome to pray for your needs or those of someone else. Simply drop the attached form in the PRAYER INTENTION BOX inside our Adoration Chapel.

Your intentions need not be general, but personal, so that we can pray specifically to Jesus for you. We are united, both in sorrow and joy, grief and happiness, anxiety and peace; defeat and victory, death and life.

In Jesus’ name,

Ando Perlas

Eucharistic Adoration Coordinator
