End-of-the-Choir-Season Message to our St. Veronica Community

Once again, friends, the choir season comes to a close for the Summer months.

We want to express our sincere gratitude for your continued support, and for your joining us in musical prayer throughout the season.

Why is musical liturgy important, you may ask? As we have mentioned in the past, we are not here to entertain, but to help enhance your spiritual worship. "Liturgical worship is given a more noble form when it is celebrated in song...Through this form, prayer is expressed in a more attractive way, the mystery of the Eucharist is more openly shown, unity of hearts is more profoundly achieved, minds more easily raised to God.." This quote is from a Vatican Instruction dating back to 1967. We will be back again in the Fall with some old favorite hymns, some new, and some in Latin, in hopes that we can touch each one of your spirits and make a more meaningful Sunday experience.

The St. Veronica Adult Choir is here for YOU. We look forward to having you join us in song upon our return.

In the meantime, if you know of anyone interested in joining us to make a difference by becoming a choir member, contact either Christopher Lindstrom at (209) 952-0209 or Sandy Kearney at 650-888-3340 or svkearn@aol.com for more information.

We will resume choir practice on Thursday evenings at 7PM in the Church during September.

We will send a reminder late Summer as well.

*Yours in Christ,
St. Veronica Adult Choir*
