SCHOOL NEWS

*Books have been ordered! Desks are clean!
Backpacks are waiting! Uniforms are pressed!
It's coming!*

St. Veronica Catholic School will open its doors on Wednesday, August 27, 2008, to 330 students from 232 families of the parish for the FIFTIETH TIME! As we begin our 50th Anniversary celebration, we thank God for the strength of members of our parish community who continue to support the ministry of the school through prayers and active participation. What a tribute to the strength of our faith community here at St. Veronica Parish to have had (and to continue to have) so many children and young people touched and loved through our religious education programs which are evident in our Confirmation Program, the Religious Education Program, and the School!

As a side note: please excuse us if we disrupt your morning schedule with our drop-off procedures which actually loop around the Church. Drop-off begins at 7:50 a.m. and gates close promptly at 8:00 a.m. Hence, the large parking lot and the area near the convent and Falcon Hall are no longer available for parking during school hours. You are invited to continue using the upper parking lot by the Rectory entrance to the parish grounds. This area is not affected by school hours. School is dismissed at 3:00 p.m. (except for an occasional minimum day on Monday and early dismissal days on Friday). For the safety of the children at dismissal, please be respectful of cones, closed gates, and areas where cars have no access prior to and after dismissal. Due to incidents in other schools and for the safety of the children, cars will not be permitted to pull in front of the Church or the Parish Center before and during dismissal. Parents and family members or friends picking up students at dismissal are reminded that parking in these areas is not permitted due to the large flow of pedestrian traffic. We do not want to see any cars backing into small children walking in this safety zone.

We are most grateful for your cooperation and feel embraced by the prayers of our faith community and the example you set for us as we work together to build God's kingdom here and now.

*May St. Veronica continue to bless us with her courageous and loving example,
Ms. Teri Pallitto
Principal of St. Veronica Catholic School*
