CONGRATULATIONS TO JANET McLOUGHLIN BURKE,
Vice Principal of St. Veronica School,

Who won the 2009 Distinguished Teacher Award for Western States at the 27th Annual Awards Ceremony and Banquet at Anaheim Marriott Hotel, Anaheim, on April 14, 2009. This award was given by the National Catholic Educational Association, Department of Elementary Schools. The citation of the award reads:

“Through nurturing, encouragement, planning, assessing, reteaching, and more planning, our students grow to be the best that they can be. If we know our students and understand their abilities we can help them to achieve more than they think they can. Set the bar high---encourage, use positive reinforcement, plan, teach, nurture, love and they will be motivated to achieve, to reach their potential and to be proud of who they are and what they do.”

This is how Janet McLoughlin Burke approaches her vocation to teach. Her principal validated her approach: "Janet is the best master teacher on staff and unselfishly shares her time and her ideas with our younger staff members. Whether it is when she is reassuring a first grader with a motherly hug or helping a first-year teacher with that same maternal sense, Janet is truly someone who possesses the vocation of a Catholic school educator and, being blessed with a gift, has learned to return the gift so her talents multiply and return to God in the many actions of those touched by her masterfulness. I think that is the key. In thirty years, Janet has mastered the art of teaching, yet she consistently tries innovative strategies and continues to grow."

Janet, everyone is proud of you. The parish community and school look forward to many more years of your distinguished service.

Father Charles Puthota, Pastor

NATURE'S LESSONS

Believe one who has tried, you shall find a fuller satisfaction in the woods than in books. The trees and the rocks will teach you that which you cannot hear from the masters.
