FATHER JOSEPH PREVITALI

Father Joseph Previtali was born in San Francisco in 1982, the first of six children of David and Marian Previtali. After attending Star of the Sea School for kindergarten and half of first grade, Father Previtali completed his primary education at St. Isabella School in San Rafael. He graduated from St. Isabella in 1996, and then completed his secondary education at Terra Linda High School. From 2000 to 2004, Father was a student at Gonzaga University, where he discerned his vocation to the priesthood of Jesus Christ for the Archdiocese of San Francisco. After finishing his philosophy studies at Gonzaga, Father Previtali was sent by the Archbishop to the Pontifical North American College in Rome, where he has been studying theology for the past five years.

For an interview with Fr. Joe, see Catholic San Francisco June 12, 2009 issue.

WELCOME FATHER JOSEPH PREVITALI

Father Joe Previtali was ordained a priest by Archbishop George Niederauer at St. Mary's Cathedral on Saturday June 20, 2009. I concelebrated the Mass with scores of other priests. I was happy to see some of our parishioners present at that ceremony. There were two others who were ordained along with Father Joe: Father Michael Quinn and Father William Thornton.

Father Joe grew up in San Rafael and completed his studies for the priesthood at the Pontifical North American College in Rome. His grandfather is Father Frank Filice, ordained in 1979 and a founder of Priests for Life. Father Joe calls his vocation “a wonderful gift” and the ability to study in Rome “a great blessing.”

On your behalf I welcome Father Joe to our parish. He will be serving our parish for about three months starting July 1st. As you know, a new priest's first few months in ministry are unforgettable. We are privileged to be part of the memorable period of his life, and I have no doubt that he will always remember his first parish---St. Veronica--- for a long time to come. Let's give him an affectionate welcome and help him with our prayers and goodwill. On completion of his stay with us, Father Joe will be returning to Rome to pursue his studies.

I am grateful to Archbishop George Niederauer and Bishop William Justice for assigning Father Joe to our parish. They must think we are a special parish community to receive the newly ordained priest and to support him with our hospitality, faith, and a spirit of joy.

Father Joe, welcome and enjoy your stay and ministry with us as you share with us your faith and fervor for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Father Charles Puthota
Pastor

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As Independence Day draws near, we think of the men and women of the military who serve with courage and competence, some far from home. How does the Church accompany them? In 1939, Pope Pius XII created an independent jurisdiction of the Catholic Church called the "Military Vicariate." In 1985 Pope John Paul II created the "Archdiocese for Military Services, USA." Spanning the globe and serving nearly one and a half million Roman Catholics, more than one thousand priests minister in hospitals, on military bases of all the armed forces, on ships at sea, and on the battlefield. The AMS does not ordain priests, but accepts priests on loan from religious orders and dioceses.

In 1824 a Jesuit priest named Adam Marshall enlisted in the Navy and died at sea in 1825. He was assigned as a "schoolmaster," but he sought out and ministered to Catholic sailors. Twenty years later, President Polk was worried that the war with Mexico was seen as anti-Catholic, so he recruited two Jesuit priests to serve in the army as chaplains. At the time of the Civil War, only about ten percent of Americans were Catholic. Military policies forced Catholic soldiers to attend Protestant services. The Church protested this rule, and many priests volunteered to become chaplains. Their witness and the courage of the "Nuns of the Battlefield" (several orders of sisters who assisted Civil War victims) helped temper prejudice against Catholics and pave the way for the life and ministry of this vigorous and unique archdiocese.
