TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Last week's Treasure mentioned the "Nuns of the Battlefield," religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. These sisters were the first, and people on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at their bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless.

After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."

IDLENESS

Idleness is the enemy of the soul.

—St. Benedict

WAITING

Our Lord prefers to wait for the sinner for years rather than keep the sinner waiting one instant.

—St. Peter Julian Eymard

My grace is sufficient for you,
for power is made perfect in weakness.

— 2 Corinthians 12:9

The Year of the Priest –
A Call for Spiritual Perfection

"Without priestly ministry, there would be no Eucharist, no mission and even no Church."

—Pope Benedict XVI

Pope Benedict XVI has declared June 19, 2009 to June 19, 2010 to be "the Year of the Priest," as it marks the 150th anniversary of the death of St. John Vianney, a true example of a pastor at the service of Christ's flock. He is currently the patron saint of parish priests but during this Jubilee Year, he will be proclaimed the patron saint of all the world's priests!

Please pray for our priests that they might always be faithful to their sacred calling.

St. John Marie Vianney

Pray for those who have recently died...

Elmer Bruning Ahrens & Marion Burns

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord..."

Please say a Prayer for our many sick, homebound and hospitalized parishioners who are unable to attend Mass.
