FAREWELL & WELCOME

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, I have invited Bishop Ignatius Wang to celebrate the 12:30 p.m. mass with us. The mass will be concelebrated by Father Warlito Namu (our former Parochial Vicar), Father Linh Nguyen (our new Parochial Vicar), Father Joseph Previtali (newly-ordained and our Parochial Vicar this summer), and me, your humble servant. It will be an occasion for us to thank God for Bishop Wang, who served our parish 1974-75 and now has retired as Auxiliary Bishop after distinguished service to the Archdiocese, and for Father Warlito, who served our parish well last year and now has begun his ministry at St. Anselm Parish in Marin County. We shall also welcome wholeheartedly our new priests, Father Linh and Father Joe.

Following the 12:30 p.m. mass, there will be a reception in the parish center. Please do join to pray and to say hello, thank you, goodbye, and welcome. On such occasions, we demonstrate how grateful we are for God's abundant blessings and how hospitable we are as a parish community.

Father Charles Puthota,
Pastor

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

At the time of the Reformation, although England broke away from papal authority under Henry VIII, a silent majority clung to the Catholic faith. Henry's eldest daughter, Mary, restored the "old religion" in a fierce persecution of Protestants (she is called "Bloody Mary" for good reason.) His youngest daughter, Elizabeth, rejected papal ties. Under her reign, beginning with legislation in 1593, Catholics were persecuted again, and only the very wealthy could afford the fines for not attending Anglican services on Sunday. They were called "recusants," from a Latin word meaning "refuse," since they refused to attend the liturgy of the Church of England. Many families maintained Catholic tradition in secret, and today their descendants claim "Recusancy" as a mark of family pride. For generations they sent their young people abroad to be educated in convents and monasteries. It is not surprising that the first monastery in colonial America springs from Holland with the daughters of patrician English recusant families. Port Tobacco, Maryland, proved fruitful soil for the Carmelite tradition.

Prayer to Saint Veronica

St. Veronica, you gave Christ a towel on His way to Calvary
Which He used to wipe the Precious Blood from His Holy Face.

In return for this great act of kindness
He left you His most Holy image on the towel.

Pray for us to Our Lord that His Holy Face may be imprinted on our hearts so that we may be always mindful of the Passion and Death of Our lord Jesus Christ, through the same Christ our Lord,
Amen

Pray for those who have recently died...

Eva Marie De Martini, Raymond Bruno &
Rev. Edward Cleary

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord...”

Please say a Prayer for our many sick, homebound and hospitalized parishioners who are unable to attend Mass.
