Religious Education at St. Veronica Parish:

A Personal Reflection by Michele Evans and Teri Pallitto

All too often, when we hear the term religious education in our parish, we think of a program. In reality, the first religious educators are in the family – the parents and the whole extended family. Here, we have our Religious Education Program coordinated by Michele Evans and a team of generous and dedicated catechists along with a vibrant Confirmation team touching some 275 children – some with special needs – and over 60 young adults. We have our parish school under the principalship of Teri Pallitto who works with a team of generous and dedicated teachers, aides, and other staff ministering to some 330 young children. Our parish religious education program includes our RCIA Program ministered by Deacon Roger Beaudry and his wife, Mary Beaudry, along with the sponsors and other parishioners who assist in the formation of our new catechumens. In that same manner, we can include Deacon Joe LeBlanc and all that he does in the Baptismal ministry as we welcome these young children along with their families into a deeper relationship with Jesus. And, all that Father Charles does as pastor is a religious education in itself!

If you think about it, the greatest role of religious educators is played by our pastor, priests, our deacons, and you and me!

Each of us is blessed with our own special talent or ministry, but, in the end, all of our gifts of time, treasure, and talent build our community of faith present in our own parish. It is within this community of faith that our children, young adults, and newly initiated Catholics are immersed. After the family, the true domestic church, and the community our young people encounter in each program, this is the community in which they experience God's unconditional love and an abundance of his blessings

Please never underestimate the example you offer through your piety, prayer, and witness to the Gospel values. Those in our parish who are growing in their faith are invigorated and blessed by the example you set. As directors of only two of the many religious education programs in our parish (and we are sure we did not capture them all in this little reflection), we would like to thank you for your wonderful testimony of the wonders God can work in a person's life. We see it every day and we are grateful that the children and families we minister to have your example and support. In essence, we are all the religious education program of St. Veronica Parish!

Michele Evans and Teri Pallitto
