Los Angeles Religious Congress 2010
Incredible Abundance

His Eminence Cardinal Roger Mahoney
Mitch Albom
Matthew Kelly
Sr. Helen Prejean, CSJ
Dr. Thomas Groome
Jesse Manibusan
Sr. Toni Lynn Gallagher, RSM
Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM
Richard Cheri
Christopher Walker
Rev. Bryan Massingale, STD
Marty Haugan
David Haas
Terry Hershey
Bill Huebsch

This is only a limited list of the presenters who will speak at the Los Angeles Religious Congress which will take place this weekend. The Congress, which will host 39,792 pre-registered participants, is an event for every Catholic.

The days begin with liturgy and prayer. With the most renowned Catholic musicians/cantors/composers present, the music itself is a moving experience. After Morning Prayer, a keynote will follow and this year the topics are Harnessing for God the Energies of Love and Have a Little Faith. Following these inspirational speakers, workshops are held until 4:30 p.m. During the lunch hour, concerts are held in the various eating areas. At 5:15 p.m. a variety of liturgies can be attended. On Friday evening you can attend a contemplative mass, or a jazz mass, or a Nigerian mass, or a Byzantine Divine Liturgy, or one in Spanish or Vietnamese. On Saturday, the choices are African-American, Celtic, Indonesian, Spanish or a Young Adult mass. After dinner, there are concerts, a film showcase, poetry readings, and, of course, prayer.

For three days, most of the parish and school staffs will be immersed in this incredible abundance. If you would like more information, check out the Los Angeles Religious Education website at www.recongress.org. You will find that the weekend actually begins with a celebration of our Catholic youth. Our faith is a gift – one which we should nurture and cherish. Events like the Los Angeles Religious Congress are only a few examples of how we can continue to grow as Catholics. The Archdiocese of San Francisco, along with the Diocese of Oakland, Monterey, and San Jose, hosts a similar event in the fall. Any which way, as adult Catholics, we must always be open to the incredible abundance we have inside and continue to grow with that grace. As religion teachers, our faculty is required to do ongoing professional development. This experience is not only intellectually fulfilling, it is also a powerful experience of our faith. To be seated in an arena for mass with some 35,000 other Catholics worshipping a most powerful God is an emotionally moving event.

Please keep us all in your prayers this weekend. Be assured that we bring you all with us!

AAA Updates Continued from page 5.

Please note, e-contributions will be posted in the bulletin once we receive the report from the Archdiocese Development Office. Thank you again for your support in our Archbishop's Annual Appeal

St. Veronica School

Dear St. Veronica Parishioners,

We wanted to inform you of a recent decision involving our parish school. After discussions and consultations with the Department of Catholic Schools and some other Archdiocesan offices, we have decided not to renew Ms. Teri Pallitto's contract as principal for the next school year. We are grateful for Ms. Pallitto's service to the school and wish her well in her future endeavors.

The search for a new principal is now beginning. The process will be as collaborative and positive as possible and involve the Archdiocesan Department of Catholic Schools. This news has already been communicated to school parents and faculty and staff. We count on your support and prayers as we work toward making the future of our school and parish stronger and brighter.

Census 2010

Households across the country have either already received or will be receiving shortly the 2010 Census form. The 2010 census form is one of the shortest in U.S. history, including only ten questions to be answered by the owner or primary renter of the residence. Questions do not ask for any private information such as Social Security number or immigration status.

Please take a moment to fill out the Census form and send it back to the Census Bureau.
