Reflection on Our Cover

The resurrection keeps people in touch with God and by so doing, in touch with each other. The guiding image for Jesus is that of "children" It is "the children of this age" who "marry and remarry" (20:34). But they will rise as "children of God" (20:36). In other words, their closeness as God's children grounds their intimacy with each other. The resurrection occurs because God will not be separated from the children of God, and it is this closeness that will enable the intimacy of all other relationships.

Pilgrimage to Italy

Dear Friends,

I returned safely from Italy last Sunday October 31st afternoon. I feel I have gained deeper love for the Catholic Church and greater appreciation for beauty because of my contact with the places of faith and art. My last stop was Venice which was most beautiful with its streets all in water. The Gondola ride will remain etched in my memory for the rest of my life.

I have never seen such beautiful and big churches in my life. The holy places where I had the privilege of celebrating Masses were special for their spiritual and emotional content.

These are the cities I visited in this order: Rome (St. Peter's Square, St. Peter's Basilica, Sistine Chapel, Vatican Museums), Monte Cassino (St. Benedictine's famous monastery), San Giovanni Rotondo (Padre Pio's place), Monte Sant'Angelo (St. Michael's shrine), Lanciano (Eucharistic miracle), Loreto (BVM's Nazareth house), Assisi (St. Francis), Siena (St. Catherine), Florence (Holy Cross Church, Santa Maria del Fiore Church), Pisa (Cathedral and leaning tower), Padua (St. Anthony), and Venice (St. Mark Basilica and Square).

St. Peter's Square and St. Peter's Basilica were breathtaking. You can't imagine how big St. Peter's Basilica is. No wonder it is the largest church in the world. I saw the Holy Father only about 15 feet away as his popemobile passed me at St. Peter's Square.

I prayed for you and your families at the holy shrines as I celebrated Mass.

May the Lord continue to bless you with every spiritual blessing.

Your friend and pastor,
Father Charles

Holiday Help for Those Grieving

Holidays are times we look forward to being with family and friends. They hold many memories for us. This is a reality that hurts as we miss absent loved ones who have died.

Handling the holiday is not deciding how to eliminate the pain of missing these people, but rather learning how best to live with the hurt without being consumed by it.

The following workshop is available to help:

- acknowledge the difficulty of the season as one who is grieving
- gain some new tools and insights for working your way through the holidays
- join with others for support and connection

Planning Your Wedding at St. Veronica Church

The policy of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco states that arrangements for marriage are to be made at least six months in advance. These months are meant to give couples the opportunity for prayerful reflection on Christian marriage and for consideration of their future life as "two who will be made one."

Your first step is to call our rectory office at 650-588-1455 to schedule an appointment to meet with a member of the clergy.

During the initial meeting preliminary information will be taken and an evaluation of your readiness to marry will be assessed. Other information will be provided regarding the Marriage Preparation Program and FOCCUS questionnaire.

You will also have the opportunity to set up future meetings with clergy, our wedding coordinator and music director who will all work with you in preparing your special day.

Calendars fill up quickly and schedules get busy, so don't delay in setting up your initial wedding appointment.

IN HONOR OF VETERN'S DAY - NOVEMBER 11, 2010

God of peace,
we pray for those who have served our nation
and who laid down their lives to protect and defend our freedom.

We pray for those who have fought,
whose spirits and bodies are scarred by war,
whose nights are haunted by memories too painful for the light of day.

We pray for those who serve us now,
especially for those in harm's way:
shield them from danger
and bring them home.

Turn the hearts and minds of our leaders and our enemies to the work of justice and a harvest of peace.

Spare the poor, Lord, spare the poor!

May the peace you left us,
the peace you gave us,
be the peace that sustains,
the peace that saves us.

Christ Jesus, hear us!
Lord Jesus, hear our prayer!
Amen

Jesus taught us about the kinds of people who are blessed by God.

This teaching is called the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12a).

This Week's Scripture Puzzle

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

God our Father offers us eternal life through Jesus the Son.

Jesus explains in Luke 20:36,

"They can no longer die, for they are like angels." Connect each triangle to the square right below it to complete another scripture passage.

Then cut it out and hang it as a comforting reminder.

In Remembrance of our dearly departed

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
Beside restful waters he leads me;
He refreshes my soul.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil for you are at my side
With your rod and your staff that give me courage.

You spread the table before me
in the sigh of my foes
You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
for years to come.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want
